FOR OFFICIAL USE ONLY

The FBRB confirms that it has no objection to the organisation of this tournament provided that World Rugby Regulation 16 is complied with. In this context, the Association will fulfil the role and obligations of the Federation as set out in Regulation 16. The FBRB wishes to reiterate the obligation for all participants in this sporting event — including both players and coaching staff — to be covered by valid sports and third-party liability insurance, in accordance with current Belgian legislation. All participating players must hold a valid player's licence and must not be subject to any current suspension or disciplinary sanction. It is the Association's responsibility to ensure compliance with these obligations.
